

The image shows the exterior of the Museum Maranatha, a building with a steep, dark wooden roof and light-colored walls. A large, white, multi-pointed star sculpture is mounted on the left side of the roof. The main entrance is a large, arched window with a wooden frame. Above the entrance, the words "Museum Maranatha" are written in a white, cursive font. Below the entrance, there is a small, ornate wooden structure containing a religious sculpture of a figure, possibly the Virgin Mary, holding a child, set against a blue background with gold stars. The building is surrounded by green trees and a clear sky.
